

FORGIVE STORIES

PERMISSION TO PUBLICISE STORY

I/we (writer/s) of (address)

.....

.... having written and supplied my/our story together with photographs and any video or audio recordings as provided by me/us (herein termed 'the story'), grant permission to publish the story in whatever form the publisher may choose. The story is provided in good faith that it will be used to encourage others. The author(s)/narrator also acknowledges that, where relevant, permission to publish the story has been sought and granted by any third parties identifiable in the story.

The publisher reserves the right to edit the story.

I/we do hereby consent for value received and without further consideration, remuneration or compensation to the publication of the story (in part or in full), including all text, photos and video recordings taken of me/us, shared by me/us, and/or recordings made of my/our voice and/or written extraction, in whole or in part.

I represent that I am at least eighteen years of age, have read and understand this statement, and am competent to execute this agreement.
